O R D E R

The petitioners, who face allegations in a crime registered for offences punishable, inter alia, under Section 498A I.P.C., have come to this Court with a prayer that the prosecution against them may be quashed in as much as they have settled the disputes with the first respondent/defacto complainant and the said respondent has compounded the offences allegedly committed by them. Though ample opportunity has been given to the petitioners to ensure that a joint statement is filed to bring to the notice of the court such composition, no statement has been filed so far. There is absolutely nothing available before the court now to come to the conclusion that there has been settlement and composition of the first respondent. The prayer in this Crl.M.C. cannot hence be allowed.

2. This Crl.M.C. is dismissed. The dismissal of this Crl.M.C. will not fetter the rights of the petitioners to make fresh application along with the first respondent, if the matter has actually been settled.
